A land of legends – the Balkans is nothing short of epic. With a history spanning tornadoes of time, whispers of dervish dancers in the hills, and fables of gods, wars and giants – this is truly a place where the ancient east crashes into the modern west. Here you will find Byzantine kingdoms crumbling into the Adriatic Sea, golden minarets and wooden crosses sitting side by side, and UNESCO wonders peeking out from under the shadow of former communist towers.

Visit up and coming Albania with its rare Alpine communities, virginal coastline and a captivating capital rising like a bright phoenix from the ashes of Hoxha's regime. Uncover the riches of Macedonia with its chanting call to prayer, marble statues, and dream like lakes disappearing in the mist. Pass through Kosovo where a new dawn rises from behind great mountains and former war-torn towns piece themselves back together. Finally, dive into Montenegro where seaside scenery abounds beneath the weight of Mediterranean blooms.
