Magic Colombia is a 1.850 KMS trip, where we start riding from the east range plains at 2640 meters above sea level located south east of Colombia through the Tatacoa desert, San Agustins Archeological Park in the Andes, passing through the Moorland in Purace National Park and the colonial, white city of Popayan. Passing through the hot and fertile valley of the Cauca river, visiting a native Indian reserve, reaching the lush coffee zone were nature explodes in all its splendor, we can relax in the hot springs of the volcano of the “Nevado del Ruiz” and ride down the hillsides through hundreds of curves to the city of Honda located at sea level at the river bank of the Magdalena river. Our last ride will be uphill through roads across the mountains ending in Bogota.
