This tour is design to bring you the best experiences this area can offer. The tour includes beautiful Adriatic coast and its islands, as well as wildernes of Bosnia and Herzegovina. Join this tour in the ancient city of Split where we will explore Diocletian's Palace built in the fourth century. Dalmatia countryside offers picturesque villages and true untouched nature. Bosnia and Herzegovina holds undiscovered beauties just two hours away. Natural beauties and authentic food at Blidinje are out of this world. In order to learn more about Tito's Yugoslavia and war times, stop in Jablanica. Sarajevo is a few hours up north, an Olympic city and Bosnia and Herzegovina capital. Sarajevo is a mixture of different nationalities, religions, and cultures living all together in peace. On the way back, you visit Mostar, a city built on a river while the Old Bridge connects east and west Mostar. Close by is the town of Medjugorje which welcomes millions of Catholics each year. Dubrovnik is a must visit destination; worldwide famous city walls have a story to tell.

Sonstige Angaben

Day in Split we will spend exploring the city as well as riding to Krka national Park. Tickets to the national park, fuel and alcohol beverages are not included in price of the tour. Admission to National park Krka is 30 euro.

Private boat excursion to the islands. On the trip we will visit three islands. We will take a private boat for the day trip. While hopping the islands we will have a lunch, drinks, swimming in the sea. Also we will visit three islands; Brać, Šolta, and Hvar. We will visit old town of Hvar, and many coves along the way where we will stop for the swim. Lunch and all the beverages are included on this excursion.

In Dubrovnik we recommend a private kayak tour around the old city walls and island Lokrum.
