As a participant in this tour you'll fly to Port Elizabeth in the Eastern Cape and be met by our staff. We will transfer to your guest house in Addo (around 40 minutes by road) where we will give you a briefing on the trip ahead. The following day we will hit the wonderful road.

When riding there will be a lead rider and on-bike luggage will be provided. Tour participants will navigate using a 'marker' (also known as a 'buddy') system, whereby the rider behind the leader drops off and waits to guide those coming behind.

The riding on this tour is a mix of tarmac, graded dirt roads and some fantastic and remote trails. As far as is possible the tour has been designed to avoid major routes.
