Day 4: Tarbes - Saint-Jean-Pied-de-Port - Biarritz "The Basque Country Bordered by the Atlantic Ocean, with one foot in Spain and the other in France, the Basque country has many facets: mountains, sea, countryside and town. But it's the mountain side, with its passes and curves, that will delight you for another day. Overnight near Biarritz.

5 - Biarritz - -
Day 5: Biarritz - Auch - Montauban "Gascony This is a roadtrip to the land of Armagnac, foie gras and musketeers dreamed up by Alexandre Dumas. Discover the bastides of the Gers, fortified villages from the Middle Ages. Overnight near Montauban.

6 - Montauban - Millau -
Day 6: Montauban - Villefranche de Rouergue - Millau "The Aveyron Gorges Along the course of the Aveyron, and especially in the Gorges region, are some of the most beautiful villages in France, set in unique sites and landscapes. 7 - Millau - Marignane -
Day 7: Millau - Alès - Nyons "The Cévennes With their chaos of rocks on arid moors, their houses of schist and sandstone clinging to the cliffs, their forests as far as the eye can see and their deep canyons, the roads of the Cévennes are an opportunity to discover both extreme nature and a rich cultural heritage.
