Embark on an exhilarating journey that will help you appreciate the remarkable history of the region and unwind at delightful sites with a drink in your hand. Ride through lovely villages, examine ancient sites, and learn about the Ancient Olympic Games.

Arcadia lies at the center of the Peloponnese peninsula and its varied landscape, large mountains (Mainalo and Parnonas) and Argolis Bay make it an ideal year round destination. It presents landscapes of incomparable beauty, areas of exciting archaeological interest and historic locations. Its first inhabitants were the Arcadians, one of the oldest most prominent tribes of the Peloponnese.

Spread out along the wooded slopes with their stone, tile-roofed homes and churches are Stemnitsa, Dimitrana and Karytaina. Each village has its own long history, natural beauty and array of attractions.

In Dimitrana you'll visit the Library, the open-air Water-Power Museum and be impressed with the amphitheatrically built of this unique village.

In Stemnitsa, you'll admire the clock tower of St George's Orthodox Church, as well as the Monasteries of Prodromos and the Philosofos Monastery.

In Karytaina you'll be impressed by the architecture as well as the amazing castle one of the well-fortified in the Peloponnese.

In western Peloponnese, in the prefecture of Ilia, lies the "Valley of Gods". One of the most prolific and celebrated sanctuaries of Ancient Greece. Ancient Olympia, the birthplace of the Olympic Games. We will ride our motorcycles in a terrain full of twisty turns and we will arrive in Olympia. We will become part of the history by strolling through the ruins, run in the stadium as the ancient Olympians did thousands of years ago.

You will conclude this memorable motorcycle tour by visiting the Agia Fotini church a unique structure built with 8 different styles of architecture as well as the splendid Kapsia Cave system. The cave is distinctive due to its rare colorations (white, yellow, red, green, and light blue) and its abundance of stalactites and stalagmites, which predominate in the "Chamber of Wonders".

Be part of history by participating in this memorable motorcycle tour.
