3 - Prespes - Florina - Prespes Lakes and Florina

Prespa Lakes, Agios Germanos Prespa

Ride to the region of Florina which is a magical world of incomparable natural beauty created by retreating glaciers and a series of seismic phenomena. Two important lakes surrounded by mountains, Great and Small Prespa, provide a stunning sight, reflecting the wooded slopes of the surrounding mountains in their waters.

Kit yourself out with the right bird watching equipment and visit the special Bird Observatory, where members of the Hellenic Ornithological Society will tell you all about the birds or even lend you a telescope to observe them. The shores of Mikri Prespa, with thick reeds, host pelicans, wild ducks and many other species of rare birds attract the interest of international scientific institutes.

Stop At: Agios Achillios island, Prespes National Park

Cross the floating bridge leading to the island of Agios Achilios in Small Prespa and admire the ruins of the 10th-century church of the same name.

Visit the caves where hermits used to live and admire the rock paintings which can be seen at Fishermen Bay or along the shores of Great Prespa.

Stop At: Florina, Florina Region, West Macedonia

Start your tour around the city with a visit to the Archaeological Museum standing next to the Railway Station. One of the Station's old buildings houses the Art Gallery that exhibits works of local artists.

Head to the landmark of the city, Sakoulevas river, which one can walk along starting from Ioannou Arti Street.

Go to the left bank of the river where you can gaze at the Second Primary School, the House of Tegos Sapountzis (the first Mayor of the City, 1912), the workshops of two local artists, the Modern Art Museum and the House of Voyiatzis, where many scenes of Angelopoulos film "The Beekeeper" were filmed.

Cross over to the opposite side where still stands the three-storey "House of Peios", one of the most impressive traditional mansions of Florina.

Continue your tour at the Dikeosinis (meaning Justice) Square, adorned with well-preserved public buildings, the old prison and the Turkish Baths. If you want to rest a bit, choose one of the hive cafes of Melas Pedestrian Street to indulge in a coffee or a delicious local speciality.
