2 - Evora - Evora - 191

Évora - Monsaraz - Évora: 191 kms

Breakfast at 8 in the morning followed by briefing to do a summary of the stage and a training in GPS handling. Departure at 9.00. We leave from Évora towards East. We await paths that meander the vineyards and wineries of the region of Reguengos de Monsaraz. From here we will continue to the impressive village of Monsaraz, which was conquered from the Moors in the 12th century along the banks of Lake Alqueva. Lunch awaits us on the contemplative margins of the Great Lake! After lunch we will have a mix of winding paths with other more open and rolling, some typical sections of the Baja de Reguengos. Near Evora, the gentle and undulating paths of the Alentejo plain begin to ask for a cold beer.

3 - Evora - Evora - 204

Évora - Serra D`Ossa - Évora: 204 kms

Breakfast at 8 in the morning and departure at 9.00, new briefing to remind the safety rules. We will begin the day with tracks similar to those of the last part of the previous day in the direction of Serra d`Ossa which will be our high point of the day, a true amusement park. It´s 50 kms of plains and soft tracks to warm up your body. Arriving to Serra d`Ossa curves to the left, curves to the right, up and down... Cork oaks, pines and eucalyptus trees. Lots of GPS navigation! A winding through the Serra d`Ossa unforgettable, but also quite demanding from the physical point of view ... Do not be afraid those who are in less physical shape, there are shortcuts everywhere! At lunch a black pork cheeks will stay in your memory!! On the way back we have more Serra d'Ossa that will be crossed NE towards SW. Arriving in Évora rolling tracks aiming, you know, that cold beer ...

4 - Evora - Evora - 215

Évora - Montargil - Évora: 215 kms

Breakfast at 8 in the morning and departure at 9.00. With about 30 kms done we arrive at Arraiolos, a beautiful Alentejo village that stands on the top a 13th century Castle. Leaving Arraiolos we will always ride among cork oaks and holm-oaks, winding tracks which gives an unforgettable enjoyment of riding. Always on a rolling terrain with wide curves and barriers on the edges changing between harder and slippery terrain with sand and traction ... We are on the way to the Montargil Dam where we have lunch and refuel. In the afternoon, wide and undulating paths with wide holes that allow us to fly demand our attention, but the fantastic suspensions of KTM absorb everything. The passage through the Maranhão Dam defines a change of terrain and type of track with more enduristic sections and of ancestral paths between fences and cork trees. It was good but short just now that you were starting to gain the coffidence on the bike and terrain. Your transfer back to Lisbon can leave you at the airport around 8.00pm.
