This tour is design to bring you the best experiences this area can offer. The tour includes beautiful Adriatic coast and its islands, as well as willdernes of Bosnia and Herzegovina. Join this tour in the ancient city of Split where we will explore Diocletian's Palace built in the fourth century. Dalmatia countryside offers picturesque villages and true untouched nature. Bosnia and Herzegovina holds undiscovered beauties just two hours away. Natural beauties and authentic food at Blidinje are out of this world. In order to learn more about Tito's Yugoslavia and war times, stop in Jablanica. Sarajevo is a few hours up north, an Olympic city and Bosnia and Herzegovina capital. Sarajevo is a mixture of different nationalities, religions, and cultures living all together in peace. On the way back, you visit Mostar, a city built on a river while the Old Bridge connects east and west Mostar. Close by is the town of Medjugorje which welcomes millions of Catholics each year. Dubrovnik is a must visit destination; worldwide famous city walls have a story to tell.
