Route of beaches and volcanoes by motorbike

This motorcycle trip is designed for a mini-vacation in Costa Rica, which will take you from San José, through the highest point of the Pan-American Highway, "Cerro de la Muerte", until you reach Piedras Blancas. The trip will continue through the tropical town of Dominical. The Pacific coast, where we will spend the night in bungalows located inside a forest ... And from here to La Fortuna, where is one of the most active volcanoes in the world, the Arenal Volcano. A motorcycle trip that will not leave you indifferent.

1 - - San José - 0
Pick up at San José International Airport and private air-conditioned transfer to your hotel in San José. Accommodation at the studio hotel. Standard room (breakfast)

2 - San José - Golfito -
We will pick you up at the hotel and take you to the base to collect the bikes. From here you drive south on the Pan American Highway across "Death Hill" towards Perez Zeledon. From there you will continue to the Piedras Blancas National Park area, located near Golfito. This area has become the perfect jungle refuge for visitors looking for adventure off the beaten track. In the remote southern zone of Costa Rica, you can enjoy activities such as hiking, bird watching, horseback riding, as well as boat and kayak trips in the nearby Golfo Dulce. Overnight at Esquinas Rainforest Lodge. Standard room (Breakfast) (Lunch) (Dinner)

3 - Golfito - Aguirre -
Today you will take the coastal road to Manuel Antonio. During this walk we will have a magnificent view of the coast and the surrounding forests. Manuel Antonio is considered the most beautiful park in Costa Rica, with beautiful white sand beaches ideal for swimming, and a tropical forest with wildlife. Accommodation at the El Parador Hotel, tropical room (breakfast and dinner).

4 - Aguirre - San Carlos -
This morning he will leave Manuel Antonio for the Arenal Volcano region. The perfectly symmetrical shape of the Arenal makes it a dream for tourists, while its wealth of outdoor activities makes it an easy place to check off on your "to do" list in Costa Rica. So visit one of Costa Rica's most beautiful volcanoes, rainforests, a world famous lake for windsurfing and an incredibly diverse wildlife population is just some of what you will find in this incredible part of Costa Rica. Overnight at the Arenal Manoa Hotel. Junior Suite (breakfast)

5 - San Carlos - San José -
Return to San José by the route of your choice (via Guanacaste, San Ramon or Zarcero). If you leave Arenal early, you can visit the Poas Volcano National Park, where you can not only admire the impressive main crater with its sulphur fumaroles, but also discover the different ecosystems of this beautiful national park. This afternoon you will return the bike to our office. Accommodation at the studio hotel. Standard room (breakfast)

6 - San José - Destiny -
Private transfer to the international airport to catch the return flight. (Breakfast)
